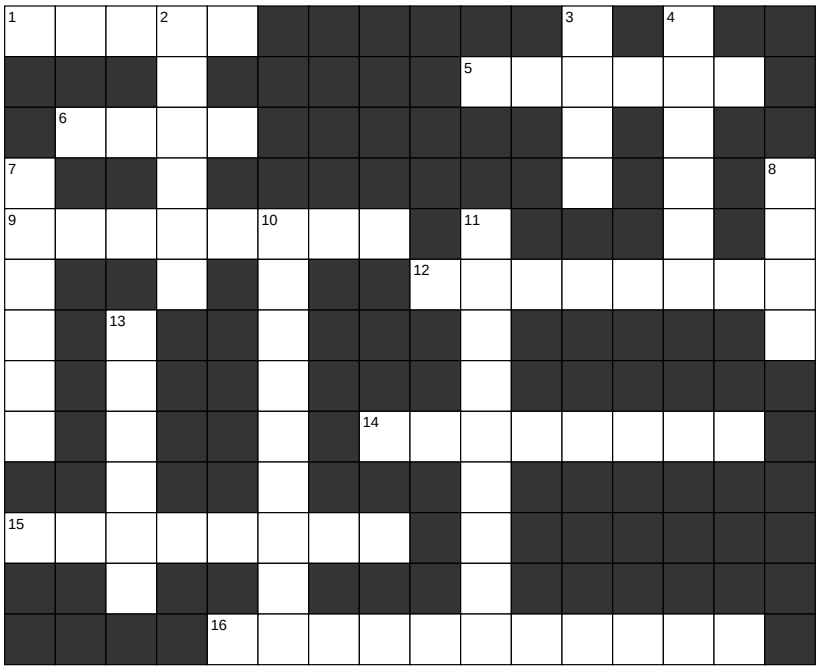
Continuous Integration

Crossword - Chapter 6

Enter one letter per square. Answers are terms used in the chapter.



Across

1. Testing ___: the ability to exercise components directly and inspect results.

5. The machine that executes a GitHub Actions job.

6. Structured text format used to write the Actions workflow.

9. A saved report, log, or screenshot attached to a workflow run.

12. Browser mode that runs without a visible window.

14. The automated process defined in a file under .github/workflows.

15. The known passing version saved before the deliberate failure.

16. Combining changes into the shared code, frequently in CI.

Down

2. A Git record of staged changes.

3. Test layer that checks Calculator directly without a page or browser.

4. Tool that runs the readable browser scenarios in the supplied feature file.

7. Workflow strategy that creates job variations from values such as layer.

8. Git operation that sends local commits to the remote repository.

10. A test statement comparing actual behavior with an expected result.

11. Browser automation interface used to click buttons and send keyboard events.

13. Python test tool used for direct calculator checks and NiceGUI simulation.